SEAGLE MUSIC COLONY PLANS 17TH ANNUAL PATRICE MUNSEL GALA

SCHROON LAKE, NY. The 17th annual Patrice Munsel Gala will be celebrated under a grand tent on the campus of Seagle Music Colony on Saturday, July 9, 2011. This annual event is the largest single fundraising event for the nonprofit Seagle Music Colony. The Gala is named after Metropolitan Opera and Broadway star Patrice Munsel, also a Schroon Lake resident. World renowned for her voice and stage presence, Ms. Munsel continues to hold the record as the youngest person ever to debut at the Metropolitan Opera.

This year's Gala honorees are Seagle Music Colony theater guru Richard Kagey, who has been involved with SMC for over 40 years, and bass-baritone alumnus Seth Mease Carico, a young artist at SMC from 2002-2005 who is now having a successful international operatic career.

The evening will feature entertainment by the 2011 Seagle Music Colony artists, a gourmet plated dinner by Lily and the Rose gourmet catering of Saratoga Springs, and dancing after dinner with the Frank Conti band. Other highlights include a live and silent auction, including unique and high quality items including vacation packages, chef's tasting dinners, artwork and more.

Reservations for the evening can be made by calling 518-532-7875. Ticket price for the fundraising event are $150 per person.
